DUES PIZZA PARTY

Join us at our first meeting of 2019 to learn about the busy first quarter activities, our many volunteer opportunities, fellowship, pizza and ...a chance to pay your dues.

This year's race to the Dues Finish Line was captured, as always, by Henry Pietras who is celebrating his 42nd year as a Knight, including service as Grand Knight in 1983-84.

Scott DeDomenic, veteran Bingo Caller, tied Henry for Dues Derby honors.

Join us in the big conference room in the lower level of Church at 7 p.m. Monday January 7th.

SPAGHETTI WITH SANTA

On behalf of the 3 co-chairs of this annual event we want to thank all the participants and the hard-working volunteers who made this special event possible.

The spaghetti was plentiful and served cheerfully by Knights, wives and friends of Knights.

We had 76 attendees, of which 41 were Children.

Santa made his annual appearance, and the Children seemed to really enjoy themselves.

Free will donations were for the Christian Refugees and we thank all for their contributions.

We look forward to next Year! John Racanelli, Steve Riga, Bob Weimer

SANTA CRAWL

We had a total of 17 Santa's, many of whom are Brother Knights. Not quite as impressive as the Jolly Old Elf's trip around the world, but in one night we visited 15 "watering holes" and collected over $2,400 for Love Chapel, our local food pantry. And we made a lot of people happy along the way.

Hey Brothers.....

The following Brother Knights have incorrect addresses in our system. Please email

WFS John Harmon at j-mharmon@comcast.net to correct these.
